CHARGES AGAINST HIM NOT YET PREFERRED

Seems to Know Where He Is at Investigation as to Animal's Regarding Collusion Statements.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Feb. 19 - Concerning the statements published that certain horsemen now racing at Ascot park would prefer formal charges of collusion against him and certain horsemen before the board of directors, James W. Brooks, manager of Ascot, said today:

"Anvil Chorus" Starts Again.

"Anvil Chorus" Starts Again.

"Charges have not been preferred against me before the board of directors, and I don't think any will be preferred. Should such charges as are said to be in preparation be filed, I shall make a statement covering the entire question, but until then I will not go into details. I will say, however, that the entire trouble arose over the efforts of a certain clique of horsemen to get rid of Handicapper Edward Jasper. I have upheld Jasper and will continue to do so, because I know he is honest and a capable handicapper and has been doing splendid work at Ascot. The trouble had its inception in a disagreement between C. E. Burnell and J. J. McCafferty, and other owners have taken sides in the matter.

Brooks Comes Out Strong.

"Any statement that races were made for certain horses to win by giving them the best of it in the weights is absolutely false. This is all I will say today."

Col. A. W. Hamilton, presiding judge at Ascot, would make no statement, but said he probably would be in a position to say something later on the subject of the trouble between certain horsemen and officials.

Durnell Not to Be Found.

C. E. Burnell, the owner of a large sta-le now racing at Ascot, could not be seen ble now racing at Asset teday.

The board of directors of Ascot did not meet today, but expect to hold a session temorrow, when it is probable the entire matter will be gone over and some action

Cause of Excitement.

Cause of Excitement.

The story arousing the excitement among the horsemen charging a prominent horseowner and a race track manager with fraud, collusion and unfair conduct and alieged that this had occurred continuously since the opening day.

Among the charges are that a certain owner has been cheating with his horses by having races specially arranged for him and then "squaring" matters with an official by presenting the official after each race with a box of cigars, under the paper cover of which was placed a $100 bill.

Used Training Shees.

Used Training Shoes.

Used Training Shoes.

This, it is alleged, always had the effect of allaying any criticism. It is also claimed that one of the owners was accustomed to use training shoes on some of his horses thus handrcapping them effectually. Later he would remove the training shoes allowing the horses to win with racing shoes, allowing the horses to win with case over practically the same fields in which they had been beaten previously. Instances are cited by the complaining horsemen where this is alleged to have occurred.

Envoyed Bear Catcher.

Favored Bear Catcher.

It is also charged that the track condi-tion was ordered changed by a certain of-licial in favor of Bear Catcher, the horse which won the race with Handzarra and Cruzados here several weeks ago. This was done on the order of an official of the track, it is asserted, who had previously laid a large wager of Bear Catcher, and who gave the order to have the track con-dition changed to make it such as most favored Bear Catcher. Officials Have Stables.

Many other charges are made in more or less detail. It is alleged that there has for some time existed much ill-feeling between certain efficials of the track, in which there have been several clashes of authority, and once an official drew a revolver on another and threatened to shoot him. Charges are also made that an official of the track has an interest in one of the racing stables and lends his official influence to favor the stable in the races. The charges are accompanied by half a dezen affidavits by the complaining horsemen.

SURPRISED DOCTOR Illustrating the Effect of Food.

The remarkable adaptability of Grape-Nuts food to stomachs so disordered that they will reject everything else, is illustrated by the case of Mrs. H- of Racine, Wis.

"Two years ago," she says, "I was attacked by a stomach trouble so serious that for a long time I could not take much of any sort of food. Even the various kinds prescribed by the doctor produced most acute pain.

AWFUL SLAUGHTER OF JEWS More Killed in Russia This Winter

Than U. S. Soldiers at Santiago.

NEW YORK, Feb. 19.-Carl Stettauer of London, who directed the distribution in Russia of the funds raised for the relief of the Jews despolled in the massacres and riots of last November, has arrived in this city.

"It has been difficult," said Mr. Stettauer, "to estimate accurately the number of persons who lost their lives. in the outrages, but verified returns from twenty-seven out of 301 towns in which trouble occurred, show that the number killed was 758, and wounded

The number of families directly affected-those whose houses, shops, or factories were the objects of attack and pillage-was between 40,000 and 50,000. To these must be added those who were indirect sufferers—clerks, workmen and the like to the number of nearly a quarter of a million persons who were thrown out of employment by the destruction of shops and factories. And many of these are still without work in consequence.
"The direct material loss of property, either stolen or destroyed by fire or Take on the Wrestling Scotchman.

OGDEN. Feb. 19.—Ogden sports claim that Charles Ross, the Sait Lake heavy-weight wrestler, is a welcher and a four-flusher, and that his announcement in the sporting columns of The Tribune this morning is nothing more nor less than an indication of his desire to evade the consequences which he knows will follow if he completes the terms of the match which he agreed to make at the ringalde at the close of the last match between Yokel and Gleason, in which the latter was thrown three times in thirty-four minutes, and Yokel was not thrown at all. Ross was asked then to make the match for any sum, in which he was to throw Yokel three times in one hour of wrestling time, and agreed to do so. He has never intimated that he accepted it since he was here. The first unnouncement of his acceptance to Yokel and his Ogden backers that he has taken the match was when The Tribune this morning stated that he had posted $100.

Strangle Hold Barred. OGDEN, Feb. 19.-Ogden sports claim

Strangle Hold Barred.

Strangle Hold Barred.

When it is shown in the articles of agreement that the atrangle hold is barred, in accordance with the preliminary terms arranged, and verbuily agreed to by Ross on the stage of the Grand opera-house at the time Yokel defeated Gleason for the second time. Yokel will accept, and will take all money offered that Ross cannot throw him three times to one hour of wrestling time. Now lot Ross keep his agreement, and bar the strangle hold as he agreed to, and take on this man who weighs twenty-five pounds less than himself, or accept the charge of being a four-flusher in the game, as he is charged by the Ogden sports and by Mike Yokel.

Again, Mike Yokel, referring to that part of Ross's statement in which the latter says he has in Sail Lake a 150-pound man for whom he can get the coin at a moment's notice, has posted with The Tribune's Ogden representative the sum of 100 to bind the match, and will bar no holds and will also, on the presentation of the articles, agree to wrestle with this unknown prodicy either in Ogden or Salt Lake, according to the choice of the unknown.

unknown."
Yokel and his friends now take up both Yokel and his friends now take up both challenges of Charlie Ross, one to make a match according to the terms he accepted on the stage of the Grand operahouse in Ogden, or to cover with a forfeit the agreement to make a match with his new discovery, the latter to weigh in at the ringside at 150 pounds and no holds barred, best three out of five.

No Biting in Clinches.

Ross is evidently sore about the second defeat of Gleason in Oxden by Yokel. He says that Yokel bit Gleason on the arm. He was offered when the assertion was made to be awarded the match, and that if he could secure a certificate from any physician or surgeon that a sum equal to the purse would be added if a toothmark could be found on Gleason's arm. He declined the offer at the time, for the reason that there were no teeth marks. "Let Ross make one of the two matches now offered him or close his trap' is the remark of one of Oxden's sports, who has the inclination and the money to back Yokel for any amount Ross's friends can put up.

Loubet Retires to Private Life, and France Has New President.

MILITARY GARRISONS FIRE 21-GUN SALUTE

New Chief Executive Promises to Labor for Peace and Concord.

PARIS, Feb. 10.-Clement Armand Falteres today assumed the duties of President of France, while former President Loubet passed into private life. The ceremony of the transmission of office took place in the Elysee Palace at 4 o'clock this afternoon, while the crowds massed this afternoon, while the crowds massed in the surrounding streets, shouted 'Long Live the President,' and 'Long Live Faitheres,' and every military garrison thundered a salute of twenty-one guns. President Loubet, surrounded by the members of his Cabinet, the Presidents of the Senate and Chamber of Deputies and the members of his military household, welcomed M. Failheres, and in a few earnest words, committed the executive functions to the new President.

The reply of M. Failheres was without formality. It was a simple acceptance of the new responsibilities and an assurance of his best efforts in carrying them out.

Mm. Fallieres and Loubet both wore evening dress, with the broad scarlet sash of the Legion of Honor across their breasts. The presence of their military staffs in full uniform gave a touch of brilliancy to the scene within the palace, while the excorts of cuirassiers which accompanied Mm. Fallieres and Loubet to and from the palace gave fitting dignity to the occasion.

Following the ceremony the former President and his family withdrew to their private apartments in the Rue Dante. President Fallieres did not remain long at the palace, returning to his former home, where his wife awaited him. President and Mme. Fallieres will take up their residence at the Elysee Falace tomorrow.

The scene as the President-elect drove bugles sounded fanfares, the colors were

"Thanks to the constant support of Parliament, the relations between Franco and other nations have been constantly fortified, and we may have full confidence in the maintenance of peace and the security of the national honor."

The President's Response.

President Loubet closed with evidence of much emotion. M. Fallieres responded as follows: profoundly touched by the cordislity of the welcome given me. I came here simply as one goes to a duty, knowing that I will be sustained in my task by the recollection of the high civic virtues of which you have never ceased to set an example during the two short years of your term as President. I take up these great responsibilities hoping that I may fulfill them as you have done under all circumstances. Like you, I will be everything to France and to the republic."

The committee disclaims any intention or desire to reflect upon the personal integrity or ability of Dr. White, the superintendent of the hospital, but say it would appear from complaints made to the committee that straight-pickets, handcuffs, etc., are in frequent use, that the "feeding tube" has been upon eccasions thrust through the nosuril, down the throst, as a method of punishment and discipline, as well as of alleged necessity.

and discipline, as well as of nileged necessity.

Many like occurrences are reported. The committee states that the conditions surrounding many of the ex-solders and sailors confined in St. Elizabeth's reflects no credit upon either the hospital authorities or the Government.

Reference is made to the "bull pen," where, it is said, some 500 are confined. The committee refers to the espect of the superintendent of the hospital regarding autopsy and makes this comment. "A like proportion of autopsies (IE out of 216 deaths) occurring in our city hospital would necessitate a large staff of deputy coroners, especially if dissections were commenced within three hours after death, while the body was still warm, as has been authoritatively stated is done has been authoritatively stated is done St. Elizabeth's."

at St. Elizabeth's."

The report also says it would appear from complaints made to the committee that "wringing out" by wet towels and "toweling" by dry towels placed about the pritents acck and twisted from behind until the natient falls over semi-conscious, sometimes with noan in the mouth, are not uncommon practices; that the "saddle" has been used at times, a contrivance upon which refractory patients are said to be placed in a reclining position, fastened hand, foot and neck so that no movement is possible except to roll the eyes around a circumscribed area of the celling, and thus left for hours.

Knocked Patient Down.

Knocked Patient Down.

One attendant stated he was instructed to make the patients fear him, as he would a horse, etc., and he commenced doing so his first day on by knocking a patient down and choking him, after which he "had no trouble with that one."

The superintendent personally told a member of the committee that the administrative details of improvement involving an expenditure of a million and a half of money during the past year in new buildings, alterations of heating and lighting plant, landscape gardening, etc., his duties in connection with other hospital plans, calls as an expert allenist to distant points, his literary labors, financial responsibilities, etc., kept him working over hours and left no time for him to give personal medical attention to the patients in the hospital.
